- Submission of full paper:20.01.2025

2. Abstract Structure

Your abstract should include the following sections, organized as described below:

a. Title

The title of your research should be concise, descriptive, and clear.

- Use bold and 16 pt font size for the title.
- Capitalize the first letter of each major word (Title Case).

b. Author(s) and Affiliations

- List all authors of the research work
- Include the full names of authors.
- Provide the institutional affiliation of each author (e.g., Department of Computer Science, Fakir Mohan University).
- Mark the presenting author with an asterisk (*).

c. Abstract Content

- Introduction (optional): Provide a brief background of the research, explaining the problem being addressed.

- Objectives: Clearly state the primary research question or hypothesis.
- Methods: Summarize the approach, methodologies, or techniques used in the research (mention tools or experiments if applicable).
- Results: Provide a concise summary of the main findings of the study.
- Conclusion: Discuss the implications of your results, potential applications, or future research directions.

d. Keywords

- Provide 3–5 keywords that best describe your research topic.
- Use comma separation between keywords (e.g., "machine learning, data analysis, healthcare, predictive modeling").

e. Acknowledgments (optional)

- If applicable, include any funding sources or contributors that do not meet the authorship criteria.

3. Submission Process

Online Submission: Abstracts must be submitted via the official ET-AIML Submission Portal (https://csconf.fmuniversity.in)

4. Important Notes

- Ensure that your abstract is free from typographical and grammatical errors.
- Submissions should present original work that has not been previously published or presented at another conference.
- The presenting author must register for the Research Conclave and present the abstract in person.

We look forward to receiving your abstract and thank you for your participation in the National Conference On ET-AIML 2025.
